

THE MDS WEBINAR SERIES

DISEASE-RELATED FATIGUE

NOVEMBER 22, 2025
12:00 P.M. - 1:30 P.M.

MDS is one hard-to-define, tough-to-treat disease. Participating in an MDS Foundation Webinar is a convenient way to get real information on the latest developments – ideas that could change your outlook as well as your treatment protocol. There's also a Q&A section, where you can ask questions or simply listen in.

This webinar, hosted by the MDS Foundation, will cover the topic of disease-related fatigue, and will feature Dr. Rafael Bejar, Professor of Clinical Medicine at UC San Diego, and Dr. Marina Kremyanskaya, Associate Professor of Medicine, Hematology and Medical Oncology, at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai. They will be joined by Peter Löffelhardt, Founder and CEO of the Global MPN Scientific Foundation.

Key discussion points include:

- Disease-related fatigue in MDS
- Disease-related fatigue in MPN
- Overview of the Global MPN Scientific Foundation

Simultaneous Spanish translation will be provided.
